

Dr Jean Seely is Professor of Medicine in the Department of Radiology at the University of Ottawa. She is a Fellow of the Society of Breast Imaging. She is Head of the Breast Imaging Section at the Ottawa Hospital, and the Regional Breast Imaging Lead for the Ontario Breast Screening Program in Champlain region. Jean Seely is an Executive Board member of the Canadian Association of Radiologists' Breast Imaging Working group and the CAR Mammography Accreditation Program. She sits on the Editorial Board of the Canadian Association of Radiology Journal and Journal of the Society of Breast Imaging. Her commitment is to reduce the mortality and morbidity of breast cancer and provide high quality breast imaging nationally and internationally. She is President and Chair of the Canadian Society of Breast Imaging. Her research interests include Breast MRI, breast cancer screening, quality in breast imaging and patient experience.