

2022 InterACTIONS Advertising

InterACTIONS is the quarterly newsletter of the Canadian Organization of Medical Physicists (COMP) and the Canadian College of Physicists in Medicine (CCPM).

Published in both print and electronic form, it is subscribed to by the over 800 COMP and CCPM members across North America and internationally. It is also available to the public on the COMP website.

Published in January, April, July and October, InterACTIONS is considered essential reading for medical physicists. It includes articles related scientific and technological advances in the field, updates on committee activity and letters from Presidents of COMP and CCPM in addition to job and association advertisements.

A limited amount of advertising space is available on an annual basis.
